Inspired by the serenity of its natural setting between mountains and sea, Takara Villas is a project of 10 luxurious modern villas that redefine the concept of stylish living on the Costa del Sol. The project takes its name from the Japanese for treasure; a precious jewel called 'Yasakani no Magatama', which symbolises the ascension of a new emperor on the day of his coronation. Each individual home at Takara Villas is designed with tall, double-height ceilings and full-length windows to create bright, luminous living spaces that let in views of the surrounding nature. Specially selected quality materials offer a visual and tactile delight while bringing sophisticated design to life.
